

o There is no good thing nor true thing on earth but I love it from my heart.

o The pretty maid who thwarts her mother with such taking graces on a question of a ball drips no less visibly with human gore than such a murderer as yourself.

o My life is but a travesty and slander on myself. I have lived to belie my nature.

o He threw a ton's weight of resolve upon his muscles and drew back the door. Seeing that I avoided answering, he added, "Do you honour ~~me~~ with your attention?"

o To set one's curiosity on edge

To hazard a guess

To make amends

To be equal to the task

II.1

- 14 o The folly of all follies is to be love-sick for a shadow.
- 14 o Nature yields to the poor of art; but the truth is she goes her own way of all that ~~was~~ ^{seems} an exception is really according to order.
- 14 o Every one would be wise; no one will become so.
- 14 o Fortune often knocks at the door, but the fool does not invite her in.
- 14 o In these sterile heights Nature withholds her fostering influence alike from vegetable & animal life.
