- II. a. The effects were writ in water. — parsing
- b. The force which produces weight is co-extensive with the universe.
- c. The advice is sensible as far as it goes.

III. In that trust of fictions, "The History of the Plague Year," Defoe shows death, with every accompaniment of pain and terror, stalking through the narrow streets of old London, and changing their busy hum into a silence broken only by the wailing of the mourners of fifty thousand dead; by the woful denunciations and mad prayers of fanatics; and by the madder yells of despairing profligates.

IV. All their hypotheses were alike wrong; and the plague was no more, in their sense, Divine judgment, than the fire was the work of any political, or of any religious, sect.
