

Lit. II Year.

2nd Term.

I Give the accent + meaning of each of the following:-

- | | | |
|-----------------|----------------|----------------|
| 1. trammel | 4. intimacy | 7. credulous |
| 2. conspiracy | 5. meagre | 8. matrimony |
| 3. lily-livered | 6. irrevocably | 9. magnanimity |

II Explain:-

- 1 the tear and wear of life
- 2 in the long run
- 3 to hold a thing cheap
- 4 to do one justice
- 5 to have no hand in a thing
- 6 the learned professions.
- 7 from all quarters
- 8 to run counter.

III. Explain the underlined:-

1. My daughters, to conceal nothing, were very handsome.
2. This remark will hold good through life.
3. Moderation is a virtue which we, with all our pretensions, are backward in cultivating, and which every man should give himself some trouble to cultivate.
4. The swimmer was strong enough to stem the tide.
5. I could make very handsome settlement on my son.
6. My children were at once well-formed + healthy.
7. They creep their way within certain beaten bounds.

Lit. II. Year, - Continued.

IV. Translate the following: -

1. He is a figure too insignificant to measure swords with.
2. All beginnings are difficult, as the German proverb has it; difficult things, ~~are~~ in fact, are only things worth doing.
3. In this book, once in every body's hands, now, I fear, fallen considerably into the shade, you find whether for youth, manhood or age, in the shape of living examples of the most rich and various type, the very stuff from which human greatness must ever be made - the real blood and bone of human heroism.

S. Toyama.