

BOOK MARK

An illustration from
"Alice of Old Vincennes"

"A jollie goode booke
Whereon to looke
Is better for you than golde."

Notable New Fiction

Patroon Van Volkenberg

By
Henry Thew Stephenson

If you have not read "Patroon Van Volkenberg," there is a literary treat in store for you. The atmosphere of this tale is fresh in fiction, the plot is stirring and well-knit, and the author is possessed of the ability to write forceful, fragrant English.

—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

With Hoops of Steel

By Florence Finch Kelly

"With Hoops of Steel" is a notable book. It has all the distinctness of a Remington sketch and will attract the reader by its splendid realism. The story is continuous and vigorous.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

At the Book Store