

imitation

p. 21

my + classic myths see for instance Tuckerman

chivalry (century) + love (feminine virtue) (Arcadia) Sidney

• Laws of development of (Discriminative)

Discriminative Power

Matter of Arthur, characteristic

- (1) no attempt to delineate character either good or bad. possessed of one or more particular qualities
- (2) females, no distinct attributes except beauty + a capacity to love
- (3) incidents depend upon chance
no plot.

cf. Tuckerman p. 40

X Romance, Hero Knight - Arthur

↓
yeoman - Robin Hood

↓
- Prince and Princess of the "Arcadia"

↓
Puritans - the Pilgrim-Christian

X Laws of Development of theoretical interests, amusements, Sports + Pastimes

Art + Literature. Presupposes a certain amount or accumulation of surplus labour.

18th material Progress in Elizabeth's Reign

予の著書に ~~reference~~ see Tuckerman p. 69